STERN A PROGRESSIVE IN EDUCATION WORK ALWAYS, HE ASSERTS

Veteran School Board Member Answers Mayor, Who Didn't Reappoint Him.

Abraham Stern, fifteen years in the School Board of New York, and for eight years Chairman of the Eigmentary Schools Committee, has retorted to Mayor Kline's statement of the reason for not reappointing him. Mr Stern's answer was that most of the progressive measures adopted by the schools in the last eight years had been indorsed by his committee. He made auggestions for future progressiveness that he thought the Board of Education

"So far as concerns the claim that I would interfere with the so-called pro-gressive policy of the board had I been reappointed," he said, "the minutes of the board show that I voted in favor of every proposition involving changes looking toward improvements in the course of study. Every year I appeared before the Board of Estimate and begged for more money for shop-work teachers and others engaged in the development of manual training.

INVITES "DRUNKS" TO DINE.

Salvation Army headquarters on West Fourteenth street was the scene yesterday afternoon of a novel meeting. It was attended by four hundred men, some sober, some drunk. The army announced several days ago that it would welcome the "drinkers" at their Thanksgiving meeting. Adjt. George Cook with a corps of assistants and many wagons patrolled the Bowery from Cooper Square to Park Row yesterday, inviting dereilets to have their Thanksgiving at the army headquarters. They were to be made welcome, drunk or sober, and they were.

Guests who were unable to navigate wer, put aboard the wagons and taken up to Fourteenth street.

In the late afternoon the dining hall at headquarters was filled to overflowing. The men were seated at tables and given coffee and rells.

There was only one disturbance at the meeting and that was cause by a guest who wore remnants of an evening suit. He insisted on speaking when other

"Mr. Churchill, who is supposed to represent the progressive element in the Board, strenuously advocated my reappointment, and distinctly put it upon the ground that I was a progressive solicies of the board.

"I have been Chairman of the Elementary Schools Committee for the past eight years. During that period the committee has introduced into the schools of New York special classes for erippied children. It then undertook to look out for the unfortunate blind onlidren. Classes were formed at the request of Miss Winifred Holt. A large number of such classes have been established throughout the city, in which the blind child is placed in the midst of the servers and inshed contains a strength of the servers and the work of the overfat are nertically and the servers of the ser
